

2022 Joint Research Program CEMLA Workshop on Labor Markets

Workshop Program

August 11 - 12, 2022 – Digital (Mexico City time, UTC -5)

Workshop Format:

The presentations will be in English and will take place using the Zoom platform. Attendants will be the 2022 Joint Research Program participants. Each paper has allocated a 45-minute presentation and a 15-minute Q&A.

11th

THURSDAY
AUGUST

- 09:00-10:00 hrs. Sectoral reallocation of employment after the COVID-19 shock: The case of three big euro area countries
Ángel Gómez, Banco de España
Salvatore Lattanzio, Dondena Centre for Research on Social Dynamics and Public Policy
- 10:00-11:00 hrs. Labor market slack and monetary policy in Uruguay
Elizabeth Bucacos, Banco Central del Uruguay
- 11:00-11:30 hrs. Break
- 11:30-12:30 hrs. Labor market sorting, dual heterogeneity and COVID-19: Evidence from Costa Rica
Jonathan Garita, Banco Central de Costa Rica
Guillermo Pastrana, Toulouse School of Economics
Pablo Slon, Banco Central de Costa Rica
- 12:30-13:30 hrs. Effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on the labor market outcomes of women with children in Mexico
Laura Juárez, El Colegio de México
Paula Villaseñor, Public Policy Consultant

12th

FRIDAY
AUGUST

- 09:00-10:00 hrs. The Multiple Job-holding in Peru
Nikita Céspedes, Banco Central de Reserva del Perú
Nelson R. Ramírez-Rondán, CEMLA
Ana Olivera, Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú
- 10:00-11:00 hrs. Labor market transitions in Bolivia during the COVID-19 pandemic
Angélica Calle-Sarmiento, Banco Central de Bolivia
- 11:00-11:30 hrs. Break
- 11:30-12:30 hrs. Informal labor markets in times of the pandemic: Evidence for Latin America and policy options
Gustavo Leyva, Banco de México
Carlos Urrutia, ITAM